..SOURCE: Spfd, Newspaper abstracts 1865-1875; page 77 for Thursday, November 9, 1871; DIED: MRS. MARTHA J., CONSORT OF JUNIUS M. ROUNTREE, DIED IN THIS CITY LAST FRIDAY. SHE WAS FOR A LONG TIME A RESIDENT OF THIS COUNTY, AND LEFT MANY RELATIVES & FRIENDS.

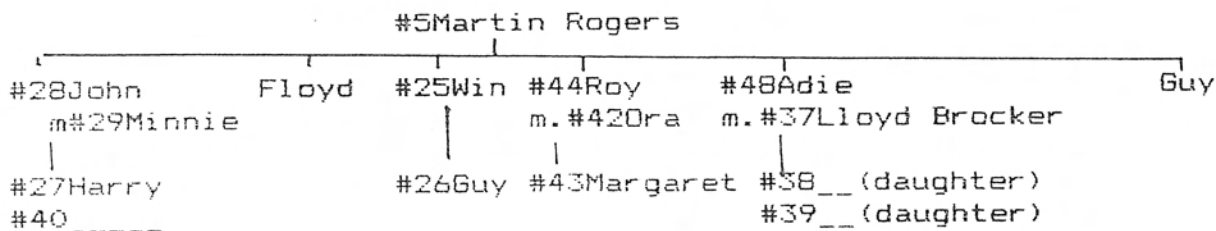

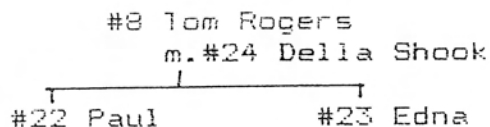

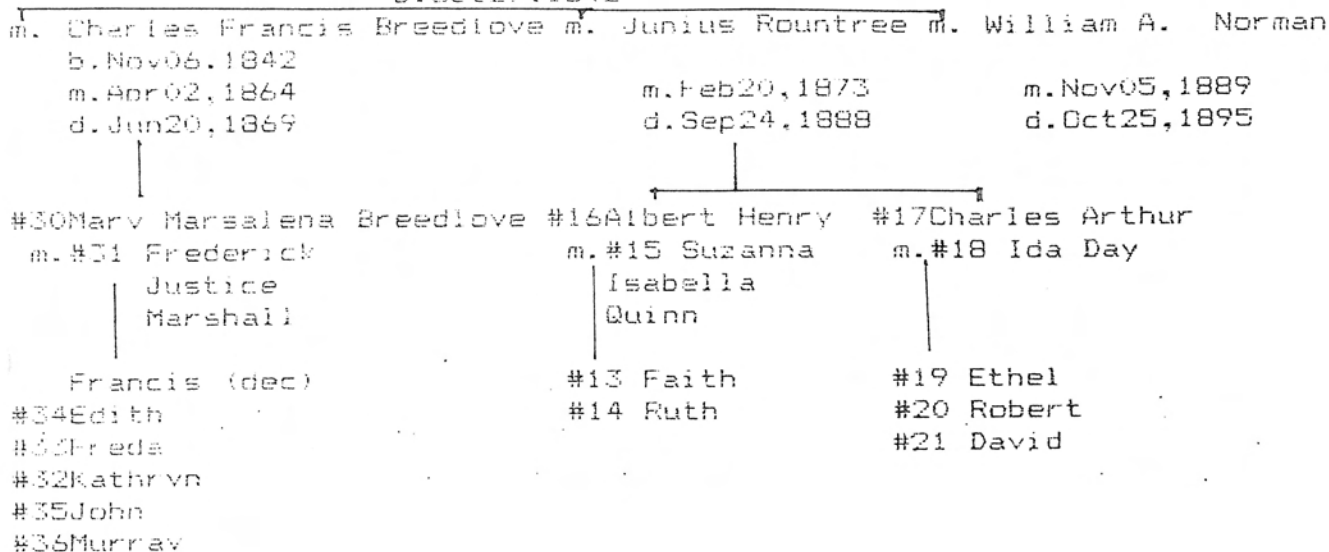

FIRST SCHOOL TEACHER in Springfield was Joseph Rountree, shown above, with the picture of his wife beside his. The Rountrees came to Springfield in 1830, when it was still "a mean little town" in the wilderness, with only a few cabins housing the first comers who had arrived only the preceding year. In a little log house, with a mud-and-stick chimney, Joseph Rountree gathered the children of his pioneer-neighbors about him for the first school. Originals of the above pictures belong to Mrs. W. D. Fulbright, granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Rountree. Pictures of Springfield's first settlers are very rare today, and these are exceptionally valuable. The above photographs are nearly a hundred years old.

Dear Paul —

I knew I had these 2 pictures and finally found them. The one is a reunion of Rachel Roger Breedlove Rountree Norman and her siblings. Picture had to be after Frank Marshall died (July 1911) and judging by the ages of John & Murray it was probably 1913, possibly 1914. Definitely had to be before May 1917 when Rachel died and Arthur Rountree and family moved to Montana.

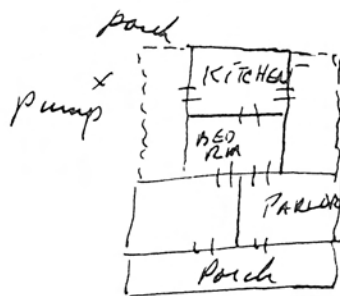

The second picture is just Fred & Lena Marshall and immediate family. The 2 men at the end of the porch are Albert & Arthur.

The house is the way that I remember it when the Lewis bought it during the late 30^{ies}.

Basement

There was a shed in that this area had held Rachel's room.

This was an add-on, used as bedroom for children, but I don't remember whether it was 2 or 3 - but small.

I'm sending the negatives but would appreciate it if you would return them when you're finished with them.

Oh - the dates ^(on the sheet showing relations) were on a piece of paper written by Rachel during the year that she reached 72.

Hope things are going ok for you. Freda is doing fine - we celebrated her 94th last Sunday. Faith is still hanging in there - still recognizes the family but is not able to leave the home any more.

Thanks again for all the material you've sent. I have closed the shop but am going to grad school (Wash. U.) so don't have much time for genealogy.

Best Love
